

LIFE ACROSS THE FENCES

- PEACE ACTION WEEK ON MIGRATION AND INTERCULTURAL SENSITIVITY -

Training course organised by Egyesek Youth Association
03/02 - 12/02/2018, Hollókő, Hungary

CONTEXT

Europe has been facing a massive migration flow since 2015 and European countries have different reactions to this challenge. The question of migration is a complex issue. Egyesek Youth Association decided to organize Life across the fences Peace Action Week because our aim is to find ways how IVS organizations can increase intercultural sensitivity among European youngsters and support the social inclusion of young migrants in Europe.

To achieve this we set the following objectives:

Source: <https://raisingpeacecampaign.wordpress.com>

- human rights education regarding the rights of migrants
- to approach intercultural dialogue with tolerance and open-minded attitude
- to empower participants to develop raising awareness actions at local, national and international level;
- to develop future Raising Peace projects on intercultural sensitivity and migration

The project will be one of the events of the Raising Peace Campaign and will empower participants to develop their actions and projects for the 3rd Global Human Rights Week of CCIVS to be held in October 2018.

WHO IS IT FOR?

- Youth workers and leaders involved in IVS organizations
- Activists committed to human rights and peace
- 18+

Ideally, we would like to include some young people with a migration background.

TOPICS

- Human rights regarding the rights of migrants and refugees through interactive workshops
- Raising Peace Campaign and Global Human Rights Week of CCIVS
- Intercultural dialogue through forum theatre
- The current situation and challenges of migration in Europe
- Raising awareness actions and you will realize one in Budapest
- Project development
